WILL PUBLISH HISTORY OF FIRE COMPANY

A history of the Gettysburg Fire company will be compiled and published sometime within the next few months.

This decision was reached at the regular meeting of the company at their Retreat in the South Mountains Wednesday night.

The plan was submitted to the firemen by Paul L. Roy, editor of The Gettysburg Times, and it was unanimously approved. President James B. Aumen appointed the following committee to direct the work: D. C. Stallsmith, chairman, and George McClellan, members of a standing committee named several years ago to compile a history: Maurice Miller, Charles Ziegler, George D. March, James A. Aumen, S. Richard Eisenhart, Raymond Menges, and Don Myers. At the insistence of the members James B. Aumen was also named to the committee.

Committee Advisors

The first four members and President Aumen are to act in an advisory capacity and to furnish background material of incidents during the early and formative days of the company.

The firemen voted unanimously that another respiratory be purchased for the ambulance. The company has one respiratory and recommended that a second one be purchased.

Don Stallsmith, George D. March and Raymond Menges reported for the food sale and bazaar committee. They announced that more than 100 prizes have been donated ranging in value from $1 to $25. The bazaar will be held July 27.

The Salvage committee announced the June collection for Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Firemen are urged to report at the engine house by 1:15 o'clock to assist in the collection and householders are asked to have their scrap paper and other salvage material on the curb in front of their homes by 1:30 o'clock.

Tribute to Member

The firemen were invited to attend a party to be given by the guards at the prisoner of war camp on Friday night as an "expression of appreciation" for the services rendered by the firemen at the recent camp fire.

George Bushman invited the firemen to participate in the Flag Day parade this evening. Firemen were instructed to be at the engine house in uniform by 7:15 p. m.

Members of the company stood in one minute's silent prayer out of respect to the memory of William A. Beales, a member, who died of wounds in action in the Pacific. He is the second member of the local company to lose his life in the war, the first being Horace M. Bushman.

Paul Hoffman was dropped from the rolls for non-attendance at meetings.

Thirty-five firemen attended Wednesday's meeting.

DR. G. E. MILLER JOINS FIRM HE HELPED TO FORM

Dr. George E. Miller, son of Judge and Mrs. E. P. Miller, York street, recently became associated with W. A. Taylor & Co., Baltimore, Md., which he helped to form. Dr. Miller was formerly technical adviser for the U. S. Chemical Warfare Service at Edgewood Arsenal, Md.

A graduate of Gettysburg college with the class of 1914, Dr. Miller spent two years at the University of Pennsylvania where he engaged in post-graduate studies in chemistry before he went to Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, where his studies were interrupted by the first World War. At that time the young scientist entered into experimental work with smokeless powder at the E. I. du Pont de Nemours experiment station, Wilmington, Del.

In 1919 Dr. Miller returned to Johns Hopkins to resume his studies for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in organic chemistry which he received in 1920.

Research Chemist
In October 1920, he was appointed research chemist at Edgewood Arsenal where his great natural ability and excellent training as a chemist were well marked. At Edgewood Arsenal a short time after his appointment he became chief of the organic department, then chief of the chemical division and finally technical adviser to the commanding general of the technical command, a key position which he held at the arsenal until his resignation last month to join the staff of W. A. Taylor & Co.

Dr. W. A. Taylor, president of the company said, commenting upon the acquisition of Dr. Miller's services: "The addition of Dr. Miller to our staff in an active capacity at this time, is particularly fortunate for us. This country is standing on the threshold of a post-war world that will look to manufacturers for goods, products and supplies of every description on a volume basis that staggers the imagination. To perfect their plans to meet the unusual production schedules ahead, manufacturers are even now looking to the Taylor staff for counsel and suggestions covering the proper Taylor outfits for the control of pH, chlor-

RESURFACING 49 MILES OF ROADS

Forty-nine miles of stone-surfaced highways in Adams county have received surface treatment—or soon will—under a statewide program of the state Department of Highways which covers 4,300 miles and involves an expenditure of $4,000,000.

J. William Kendeheart, Jr., maintenance superintendent here for the state highway department, said today that 40 miles of the road surfacing work in this county already has been done. The Emmitsburg road is the only sector yet to be surfaced under this program, he said. The first 40 miles included the road from Cashtown to Brysonia and Wenskyville, a section of highway near Aspers and short stretches in many parts of the county.

Guam, June 14 (AP)—Marines shattered one major pocket of Japanese on Okinawa yesterday, and Yank infantrymen drove two 400-yard wedges into the remaining 13 square mile area still held by the Mikado's men, after wiping out a banzai attack and winning a 36-hour grenade duel.

Tokyo broadcasts conceded the plight of 10,000 survivors, including every man and woman over 15 who was physically able to fight, was "truly desperate." And Premier Kantaro Suzuki conceded loss of the island, 325 miles from Japan, by saying neither the fate of the homeland nor his own as premier hung on the outcome of the Okinawa battle.

Radio Tokyo boasted that Lt. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., U. S. Tenth Army commander, was the first American general to suffer the "embarrassment of a formal rejection" of a surrender demand. Dispatches from the front said Buckner's offer was ignored but the tricky Japanese took advantage of a temporary suspension of artillery fire during preparations for possible peace to fortify a hill on the western flank—treachery which cost the lives of American Marines.

Aussies Seek 3rd Airfield

By JAMES HUTCHESON

Brunei Bay Borneo, June 14 (AP)

—Tank-led Australian Ninth division troops are battling Japanese through swamp and jungle for the only remaining airfield in this invaded northern Borneo area after overrunning the other two without a fight, headquarters reported today.

The 4,500-foot Labuan island airfield, occupied a few hours after the invasion opened Sunday, already is being used by artillery spotter planes. It is being developed as a bomber base, within 800 miles of Singapore.

Fourteen miles south of the main-land invasion beach at Broketon, the 3,600-foot Brunei airfield also was won easily. It is 2 miles outside the capital city of Brunei on which the "Diggers" are closing from two sides against enemy mortar, machinegun and rifle fire.

Japs Surprised
But the Nipponese on Labuan island, which commands the entrance to Brunei bay, showed more fight as the invaders drove within two miles of the 3,600 foot Timbalai airfield. It is nearly five miles from the original beachhead outside Victoria town.

After recovering from the apparent early surprise—the enemy obviously expected an invasion at Jesselton 60 miles northwest—the Nipponese started using mines and boobytraps extensively on both Labuan and the mainland.

(Melbourne, Australia, reports stated the Japanese were seeking frantically to get reinforcements down to Brunei bay from Jesselton over bomb-blasted rail lines).

Some of Borneo's finest rubber plantations fell to the Aussies in the Brunei airfield vicinity.

George W. Sharrah Succumbs Today

George W. Sharrah, 77, of Franklin township, died at the Warner hospital this morning at 5 o'clock of complications, following a five weeks' hospitalization resulting from a fall on his farm where he suffered a broken leg.

Mr. Sharrah, son of the late John A. and Lizzie (Shultz) Sharrah, was born in Adams county where he resided all his life. He was a laborer. His wife, Annie Sharrah, died about two years ago and he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Clinton Davis, Chambersburg, and the following brothers and sisters: Miss Jennie Sharrah, Mrs. Grace Hampton and Oliver and Emory Sharrah, all of Franklin township.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender funeral home, Rev. A. R. Longenecker officiating. Interment in Florh's church cemetery.

U.B. Bible School Will Start Monday

The Memorial United Brethren church will open its summer Vacation Bible school next Monday morning.

The school will convene each morning at 9 o'clock in the church auditorium for worship following which classes will begin their work.

All children from four to 14 years of age are welcome to attend.

Kill 300 Japs
The banzai charge, the expected forerunner of other suicide attacks, was made by 300 screaming Nipponese against the Seventh Infantry Division on the opposite flank. Every attacker was killed.

The Japanese prepared well for the assault. For 90 minutes, they laid down a barrage of mortar, machinegun and rifle fire and hurled grenades.

Then the Japanese attacked with grenades and satchel charges. Capt. Dallas D. Thomas, of Shawnee, Okla., and Torrington, Wyo., told Associated Press Correspondent Al Dopking that 250 were killed before dawn and the remainder were hunted down behind crags and killed by noon.

American casualties were light despite fierceness of the fighting.

The action occurred near Hanagusu, eastern anchor of the Yaeju escarpment line, when the Japanese attempted to retake hill 95.

Slay 3,500 In 9 Days
On the opposite side of Okinawa, Maj. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr.'s Sixth Marine Division completed smashing pocketed Japanese on Oroko Peninsula. The Leathernecks killed 3,500 enemy troops in their nine-day battle for the peninsula.

The Japanese, now squeezed into one 13-square-mile pocket behind the twice-breached Yaeju escarpment, today clung only by their fingertips to this bit of Okinawa.

485 square miles. But they clung tenaciously and stubbornly, forcing U. S. Tenth Army troops to hammer at each single, separate finger.

Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold's Seventh Division, hammering at one of those fingers on the east flank gained most of the escarpment rim above Hanagusu itself, in a 400-yard advance. Hanagusu itself, although behind American lines, still is no man's land. Both Japanese and American artillery dominate it.

Smashing at the enemy finger on the western flank, Maj. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle's First Division Marines strengthened their position on strategic Kunishi ridge by bringing up reinforcements. Subjected to heavy enemy fire as they crossed 800 yards of open rice paddies, the reinforcements were moved up in Sherman tanks and protected by a smoke screen. The tanks carried out wounded on the return trip.

Because of the difficulty of taking up supplies, airplanes parachuted food, ammunition and water to forward elements.

ELLIOTT GOT RADIO SHARE OF $33,438

Wilmington, Del., June 14 (AP)—Records in the Delaware court of chancery disclosed today that Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt received $33,438 as his share in the pro rata liquidation of Transcontinental Broadcasting System, Incorporated, formed in October, 1939, and thrown into receivership within a year.

The disclosure came as Republicans in Congress called for investigation of statements that Roosevelt had settled for $4,000 a $200,000 loan from John Hartford, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, made in March, 1939.

Roosevelt, with 4,000 of the outstanding 10,000 shares of class A non-voting stock, was the largest stockholder on record. He was not included among the petitioners for receivership, who stated they wished to protect the remaining assets and have them distributed.

Chancellor W. W. Harrington granted the petition and Harry Stehman of Pittsburgh, a stockholder, and Daniel P. Wolcott, a Wilmington attorney, were named receivers August 29, 1940.

In their final report, Stehman and Wolcott informed Harrington that $83,596 had been sent to 19 stockholders, and that $5,000 had been paid to the New York law firm of Breed, Abbott and Morgan.

CALL HOSPITAL HEAD IN PROBE

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The House Veterans Committee today summoned the head of a government hospital at Northport, N. Y., in its inquiry into charges of abuse and negligence in treatment of ex-servicemen.

A subpoena for John H. Ale, manager of a Dayton, Ohio, veterans hospital was delayed after the committee was informed he is ill. Rep. Ramey, (R.-Ohio), a member of the committee, told the House earlier in the week that veterans are "used like dogs" at the hospital. Ale probably will be called in about two weeks.

Col. Louis Verdel, superintendent of the Northport hospital, was subpoenaed by the committee for questioning after Veterans of Foreign Wars investigators reported "stunning examples of physical violence" inflicted upon patients there.

Earlier testimony before the House group disclosed that 15 Negro soldiers, stationed at the hospital as attendants, had been court-martialed for abusing patients and that five former civilian employees are facing criminal charges on the same complaint.

He was then sent to England. Cpl. Wagner participated in the invasions of France and the Rhineland and in the Battle of the Bulge. He was a member of the Fifth Combat Engineers. Cpl. Wagner returned to the U. S. on a 51-day furlough on April 1, this year.

T-5 Griffin wears the Silver Star medal, received for gallantry in action; the Purple Heart medal and European Theater ribbon with three combat stars. He received an abdominal wound and a wound of a hand when he was taken prisoner by the Germans last October 29. He escaped from the Nazis in April. He says that he received good medical care while in the hands of the Germans. T-5 Griffin expects to be transferred to a hospital near home in the near future and is to undergo an operation as a result of his wounds.

OKINAWA CRAFT LAMBAST JAPAN

Guam, June 14 (AP)—Fifty planes of the 10th Army tactical air force, the largest force sent against Japan from Okinawa, gave the enemy home land its sixth straight day of aerial pounding Tuesday, the Navy disclosed today.

Marine corsairs hit the Kanoya airfield on Kyushu with more than 12 tons of bombs and rockets. Hits were scored on parked aircraft and buildings were observed collapsing.

On the flight home, the raiders hit Kushira and Tokuno airfields. One plane and its pilot were lost.

Kyushu, which also has been hit by B-29s from the Marianas, and by carrier planes of Adm. William F. Halsey's U. S. Third fleet, is the staging area for enemy suicide planes which to date have sunk at least 25 ships and damaged more than 50 others at Okinawa.

No Jap Raids

Although the weather was favorable for raiding at Okinawa Tuesday, today's communiqué said no Japanese planes appeared.

Japanese shipping off the main homeland island of Honshu was harassed again Wednesday by Navy search planes. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz also announced air strikes at the Kuriles and Carolines.

In Manila today, Gen. Douglas MacArthur expanded the picture of action below the Ryukyus to Formosa, the China coast and south into the East Indies as far as Java.

CHILD KILLED IN TRIPLE SHOOTING

Oil City, Pa., June 14 (AP)—Seven-year-old Cecelia Wencil died from a bullet wound today in Oil City hospital where her mother and grandfather lay in serious condition, victims of a triple shooting tragedy at their rural home near Knox.

State Policeman Paul Winger said the grandfather, 73-year-old John Wencil, shot the two and later wounded himself early yesterday.

The condition of Wencil was critical this morning, hospital attaches reported, and his daughter, Medora, 25, was described as in "fairly good" condition.

Policeman Winger, who questioned the wounded at the hospital, said Wencil had been "opposed to his daughter going out with young men," adding that he "never wanted his daughter to leave the house."

He asserted the retired railroad worker shot Medora and Cecelia while they lay in bed, then when Winger and District Attorney W. P. Gary called at the house, shot himself with a rifle.

Inquest Held In Death Of Infant

Philadelphia, June 14 (AP)—Mrs. Barbara Ripley, 31, cried out at a coroner's inquest yesterday into the death of her three-month-old son, Thomas V., Jr., "What, no crime to throw dirt on that little baby's body?"

Mrs. Ripley was protesting the statement of Colbert C. McClain, assistant district attorney, who said there was nothing to show criminal intent or malice on the part of two grammar school sisters, Irene Jones, 15, and Janet, 11, who police said have admitted that they took the baby from his carriage to "play house" May 31.

The coroner's verdict was death from head injuries inflicted "in a manner unknown."

The Ripley child was found dead in a vacant lot. At a June 8 hearing, Judge Charles L. Brown absolved the girls of criminal intent and ordered charges of abduction held in abeyance.

Wiesbaden, Germany, June 14 (AP)—Herman Pister, who was commandant of the Buchenwald prison camp in 1942 and 1943, and 18 staff officers have been arrested and are being held in a prisoner of war pen at Fuerstentfeldbruch in the 45th division area, it was announced today. Also listed as a prisoner of war was a Dr. Sahencamp, resident physician at Dachau. He was captured by men of the Fourth armored division.

80-Day Bombs Found In Paris

Paris, June 14 (AP)—Not until last November 11—eighty days after the liberation of Paris—did American bomb disposal officials breathe easily, relieved of the fear that the French capital might be rocked by explosions, Colonel Thomas J. Kane, bomb disposal chief in this theater, disclosed.

Kane, of Punxsutawney, Pa., said yesterday that his men found demolition charges with 80-day mechanisms among the 1,600 tons of explosives removed from Paris after the Germans left.

"Eighty days was the longest time charge the Germans were known to have," he said, "but we were not sure we had located them all."

Third And Seventh Remain In Europe

Washington, June 14 (AP)—Secretary of War Stimson said today the Third and Seventh armies have been selected as the American Army's occupation forces in Germany rather than the 15th Army.

He did not, however, disclose the future of the 15th Army, which until recently has been viewed as the probable occupation outfit.

Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., commander of the Third, who was present at Stimson's news conference today, will return soon to his command in Europe, the secretary said.

The Seventh Army was commanded by Lt. Gen. Alexander Patch, but he returned to the United States recently, and was succeeded by Lt. Gen. Wade H. Haislip.

Lee Mapes Sticks His Neck Out

We had a meeting at the Town Hall Friday night, and when Homer Bentley spoke up for a new roof for the schoolhouse, Lee Mapes interrupts him.

"How long you been in this town?" Lee demands.

"Fourteen years," says Homer proudly.

"Then you keep quiet!" says Lee. "We can't have transients running things in our town."

I'm glad to report that all of us voted Lee down and let Homer have his say. I'm glad not just because the school did need a new roof, but because it doesn't do to let intolerance and prejudice creep into a community.

FREEMAN BACKS DRAFT IN PEACE FOR U.S. DEFENSE

Washington, June 14 (AP)—Editor-historian Douglas Southall Freeman said today "compulsory military service, properly administered, has proved to be the surest, most democratic and most economic system of essential national defense."

In testimony prepared for the house postwar military policy committee, the editor of the Richmond (Va.) news leader said:

"The examination of American military history makes clear x x x (that) the old cycle of disarmament, negligence and frenzied preparation for war has cost our nation unreckonable billions of dollars and hundreds of thousands of lives."

Historian's View

A military historian, he asserted, probably would outline the function of our armed forces this way:

"Our army and navy, while available for the maintenance of order at home, should be so constituted that they can develop competent officers of every rank, test new weapons, explore new tactics and maintain an organization capable of vast and rapid expansion and training to the end that decisive victory in war can be assured in minimum time with the lowest practicable loss of human life and the least practicable expenditure of the nation's substance."

"The United States, prior to the outbreak of hostilities, never maintained an army of sufficient size to give our officers peacetime field training on a scale that equipped them to handle any large body of men confidently, on the basis of experience."

Backed by C of C

The United States Chamber of Commerce advocated a peacetime draft today with a continuous training period of 12 months.

In a statement of its views to the house postwar military policy committee, the Chamber said "we dare not say that there will be no more wars."

"Of course we should like to feel that measures adopted at the San Francisco conference will provide a lasting peace, and shall support its agreements fully to that end," the Chamber said in a statement prepared for presentation by Dunlap C. Clark, Kalamazoo, Mich., chair-

Must Stay 'On Wagon' Or Pay $50,000 Bond

Philadelphia, June 13 (AP)—Major W. Griffin Gribbel, wealth Philadelphia clubman, must forfeit a $50,000 bond if he takes a drink of intoxicating liquor during a seven-years' probation period or fails to report monthly to quarter sessions court.

Gribbel, World War I veteran, was placed on probation yesterday and ordered to post the bond after pleading guilty to charges of stabbing a waiter in December, 1943.

LABOR LEADERS SILENT ON SPLIT

Washington, June 14 (AP)—AFL and CIO leaders were silent today on "Big Bill" Hutcheson's disclosure that the federation would not sit with the CIO at future labor-management talks.

Hutcheson, head of the AFL-Carpenters Brotherhood and a member of the federation's executive council, said the council at its May session had decided against collaboration with any "dual labor union." He made the announcement in his monthly publication, "The Carpenter," under the caption "The Traditional AFL Policy."

The disclosure is important at this time because of the wartime cooperation of the AFL and CIO leaders and the newly-ratified labor-management charter which the AFL and CIO joined in with the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Neither William Green, AFL president, nor Philip Murray, CIO chief, would comment. Others in the CIO were sarcastic in their reaction.

Green's aids said there was nothing new in the policy, that the war time collaboration was of an emergency nature and that the federation was consistent in not wanting to sit down with the CIO in discussions with the government or management because it had the effect of recognizing the CIO—an offshoot of the AFL—as an organization on a par with the federation.

man of its National Defense committee.

"But all history refutes that hope," it added, recalling that the United States has engaged in seven major wars in 170 years.

Waging War On Cattle Grubs

It is estimated that cattle grubs, often called warbles, are costing American farmers over fifty million dollars a year. And perhaps the loss is even higher, for it is impossible to estimate how seriously milk production is hampered when the pests are numerous. Of course, the running of cattle occasioned when the flies are present, the tons of meat discarded because grubs are found in the choice cuts, and widespread damages to cattle hides constitute a menace which every livestock owner should seek to abate.

Definite dates for the development of various stages of grub growth are not known. However, here are a few facts which will permit cattle owners to practice at least partial control: After a few warm days in early spring the common heel fly attacks cattle, laying their eggs in the hair of the animal's feet and legs. For some unaccountable reason cattle run excitedly whenever these flies appear, although there is no indication that the fly causes any pain in their egg-laying advent.

The eggs hatch in a few days and the tiny grubs burrow at once through the animal's skin, later working their way among the muscles throughout the victim's entire body, growing rapidly en route until they measure almost one-third of an inch in length. In about eight months after hatching, the grubs or most of them reach the region of the animal's back, where they begin to pupate, later falling to the ground after emerging through a hole in the skin. Then the life cycle is completed—from fly to egg to grub (larva) to pupa to fly again.

Effective Dust

Thirty million pairs of shoe soles are ruined each year by this enemy, according to federal estimates. How much suffering the mute victims of grubs experience cannot, of course, be judged. But surely it is sufficient to merit nationwide war on this common foe, for merciful motives if not for economic reasons.

The best time to kill the grubs is just before they begin to emerge from the animal's back, as indicated by examination of the open soles, with the dates varying from one locality to another. The first treatment should be made as soon as the openings expose the buried grubs, followed by two more treatments at thirty-day intervals. Government veterinarians recommend insecticidal dusts, washes, sprays or dips. Dipping is employed mainly where large numbers of cattle are infested.

An effective dust is made by mixing 1 part (by weight) of 5 per cent derris (rotenone) powder with 2 parts Tripoli earth. Another is prepared by mixing 1 part derris powder with 2 parts volcanic ash. Apply either by rubbing the dust carefully into the skin along the back where the cysts are found. One quart of dust will treat 18 to 20 animals.

Or a wash may be used, composed of 12 ounces of 5 per cent derris powder dissolved in 1 gallon of warm water in which 4 ounces of granular laundry soap has been dissolved. Stir

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Flag Day

Good was the day for men afraid
When first Old Glory was displayed,
And to the breeze for all to see
Was flung the flag of liberty.

Good was the day for all the world
When first Old Glory was unfurled,
For all who saw it in the sky
Knew freedom's friends were standing by.

Grateful and glad today we are
For every stripe and every star
By which remembrance is enshrined
Of freedom's colonies of old.

Today our grateful prayers are said
For all Old Glory's valiant dead,
Of land and ocean and the sky,
Who dared in freedom's cause to die.

Today's Talk

THESE EYES OF OURS

I am informed that "more than 80 per cent of all impressions we receive from our surroundings come from sight."

This is a very interesting statement, and undoubtedly true. It emphasizes the great importance of the eyes, yet calls our attention to the fact that we all too often fail to appreciate the significance of this wonderful gift of ours. On the other hand, what a sphere of activity and exploration the idea opens up for us! By using these eyes of ours efficiently we grow in richness because of the accumulation of beauty in our own minds and lives, and are inspired to create a new appreciation of beauty on the part of all those with whom we come in contact.

As an example, if we beautify our own home and garden, our neighbor is inspired to do the same thing—thus our influence spreads. This is the method whereby a better world comes about.

On a sunny afternoon, some twenty years ago, I had finished my work in a southern city and spent the rest of the day in an art gallery. I had always loved art and beautiful things, but I knew very little about different mediums. I became fascinated in a set of etchings that was shown me in this gallery. This was the start of a collection that has grown with the years, and which has enabled me to instill this same love of etchings in scores of other human beings. And I am happy to know that many others have started where I began, and they, in turn, have become enriched.

If, at the end of a day, we would jot down all the beautiful things we have seen, it would be the means of educating these eyes of ours to take greater draughts of beauty at every opportunity. No two of us ever see the same things in the same manner. Every pair of eyes is selective, and the more that is selected, the greater becomes its ability to appreciate all beauty.

The appreciation and understanding of all phases of beauty call for alert eyes. Let us keep them that way. They contribute so much to health and happiness.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Building Things From Love."

Rigid Controls Go On Sugar Supplies

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The government today clamped rigid controls on sugar in an effort to insure fairer distribution of available supplies.

Fixed quotas for all government agencies and other users were ordered by the War Food Administration which simultaneously announced that civilians will receive less sugar during the next three months. The order divides among all primary distributors the total quantity of sugar available for distribution and gives each a separate quota for sales to the WFA, government agencies through the Army, authorized purchasers and civilians.

PREDICTS BIG THREE MEETING AFTER JULY 5TH

By J. M. Roberts, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

President Truman's full schedule and other situations seem to indicate that the Big Three meeting will be held between July 5 and 15, but there is at least one possibility, if only a mere possibility, that it could come earlier.

Truman has a tremendous program before him between now and July 15.

The mere fact that the United Nations pact is expected to come before the Senate within that period would seem to be enough, since the President could be expected to play an important role then.

But Truman is to confer with Charles de Gaulle next week before leaving for San Francisco where the United Nations conference is expected to close Saturday.

Churchill Election
He expects to spend two days at home in Independence, Mo., the following week—perhaps June 27 and 28.

Coupled with the fact that Winston Churchill has an election on his hands July 5, all of this rather restricts the time in which a Big Three meeting can be held if it is to fall within the 40-day period Mr. Truman predicted on June 7, which also ends July 5.

A meeting at such a time, taking the President and probably Harry Hopkins away from Washington when the Senate is expected to be debating the pact, would indicate supreme confidence of victory in what might very well turn out to be quite a fight.

Also, Mr. Churchill has already warned his constituents that he might have to be away before the election. Of course, that was before the meeting was definitely arranged.

Frisco Meet?
Joseph Stalin is no longer head of an army fighting in the field, which once gave him good grounds for becoming one of the world's most visited men. A little reciprocity right now might reassure some of his erstwhile callers who are hearing widespread gossip that perhaps their neighborly attentions were more tolerated than desired.

It is hard to imagine anything which would fire the world with greater confidence, which would send the UNCIO delegates home with greater enthusiasm, than to see Joseph Stalin and Winston Churchill join Harry Truman on the platform.

IS MEDICINE DESTROYING ITSELF?

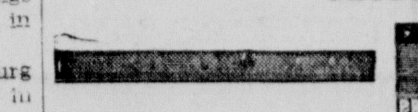

★ Times dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfa drugs and penicillin are examples.

Less dramatic, but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal; swamp clearance; water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these triumphs.

The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Brice to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labors incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence."

The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician. The accurate filing of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

Weather Too Hot; 7,000 Workers Idle

Pittsburgh June 14 (AP)—A work stoppage attributed to hot weather today kept more than 7,000 workers idle at five plants of the Carnegie-Illinois steel corporation, a spokesman for the firm reported.

Only 350 men, crews which operate coke batteries, walked out but the others were made inactive since their work depends on gas produced by the coke plant.

The company reported workers at the Clairton by-products coke operation had demanded summer relief crewmen which normally are authorized after three successive days of 90-degree temperature. The weather has not been that hot, the company spokesman said.

The management said 35 open hearth furnaces were shut down as were several rolling mills, bar mills, hot mills and a seamless tube mill of the National Tube company at McKeesport. Daily production loss was estimated at 3,800 tons of steel.

Las Vegas, Nev., June 14 (AP)—Actress Deanna Durbin, 23, and her film producer, Felix Jackson, 43, were honeymoon-bound today, destination undisclosed.

The dark-haired film singer and Jackson, a native of Gumburg, Germany, who was naturalized as a United States citizen in 1940, were married yesterday in the Little Church of the West.

To repeat, a mere possibility. But isn't it an interesting one? And it certainly would ease the strain on Mr. Truman's date book.

JAPS HOLD UP YANK ADVANCE

By SPENCER DAVIS

Manila, June 14 (AP)—Desperate Japanese forces, composed largely of beached naval personnel, are fighting tenaciously and fanatically to prevent a Yank advance along the east and west banks of the Davao river on southeastern Mindanao.

For a week these Japanese have held up a large-scale American advance.

On the east bank, veterans of Col. Thomas E. (Jock) Clifford's 19th Infantry Regiment finally smashed organized resistance in the hemp groves and jungled hills, headquarters reported today.

Scattered pockets however remain near Mandalay.

"The ultimate defeat of these Japanese on the Davao river," reported Associated Press Correspondent Richard Bergholz, "is written in American blood."

West of Davao city, along the Talomo-Kibawe trail, other 24th Division troops commanded by Maj. Gen. Roscoe B. Woodruff, with elements of Maj. Gen. Jen S. Doe's 41st Division battled against tough

Death Sentence Is Being Appealed

Philadelphia, June 14 (AP)—An appeal to the Pennsylvania Supreme court from a death sentence imposed on Corrine Sykes, 20-year-old negro housemaid in the slaying of Mrs. Freda S. Wodlinger has been listed for argument during the week of Sept. 24 at Pittsburgh.

The girl was convicted of first the Commanding General of the Technical Command. He has had a hand in virtually every important piece of laboratory work handled by EA (Edgewood Arsenal) in the last quarter-century.

"Dr. Miller is admirably equipped for his post. He came to Edgewood Arsenal as associate chemist in October, 1920, after studying chemistry at Gettysburg, (Pa.), and Johns Hopkins colleges. He was promoted to chemist in May, 1923, became Chief of the Chemical Division's Organic Department the following April, and was named Chief of the Chemical Division itself in April, 1930. He took over his present assignment in January, 1942.

"For his splendid work at EA Dr. Miller holds the War Department's Emblem of Meritorious Service."

JAPAN IS UNDER MILITARY RULE; PREMIER STAYS

San Francisco, June 14 (AP)—Japanese Premier Kantaro Suzuki admitted today the military had taken over the rule of the country and declared he would not resign even with the fall of Okinawa.

The Japanese people meanwhile were instructed to make of the home islands "a fortress rivaling Rabaul in impregnability," as the premier indicated the army and navy were depending on one bold strike at the American fleet and on overwhelming manpower to eventually bring victory to the Rising Sun.

The developments were reported by the Tokyo radio and Japanese government controlled Domei news agency in broadcasts recorded by the Federal Communications Commission.

Suzuki in a press conference announced his decision to remain at his post regardless of the Okinawa results, and declared the struggle there was not "a decisive battle which will determine the final outcome of this war."

Rules Nations

The disclosure that the military was in direct control of the government came in an answer to a reporter's question, Domei said. Suzuki explained the supreme war council, composed entirely of army and navy department officers and ministers "now functions virtually as a war cabinet." Under the imperial decree rule approved earlier this week by the Diet, the cabinet's decrees are the law of the land.

Suzuki emphasized American supply problems in invading Japan, and asserted the Americans would require months to land even half a million troops which would be met with "forces five or 10 times superior."

Japanese propaganda agencies did not fail, however, to point out the signs points unmistakably toward the home islands' invasion. Domei reported "scores" of United States Liberators and Flying Fortresses had reached Manila from Europe and that the American "air supremacy" in the Ryukyu island chain was being "consolidated" with "frantic" speed in the wake of Okinawa land successes.

Farm Crops Need Sunshine, Warmth

Harrisburg, June 14 (AP)—Pennsylvania's farm crops are in urgent need of sunshine and warmth, the state agriculture department reported.

Cool, wet weather in May delayed field work and vegetation and much ground had to be replanted, the department's federal-state crop reporting service said.

The agency added there were fewer victory gardens than last year, most of them being late and none doing too well. Fruit prospects were further reduced by May frosts with peaches coming through best.

Egg production for May was listed at 16 per cent below the same 1944 period. Pigs and poultry are scarce with the demand for baby chicks far exceeding the supply.

A bright spot in the food picture was the production of milk which the agency said increased 15 per cent during May to reach the highest point ever known.

GERMANS HAD POISON GAS— BUT NEVER USED

Wiesbaden, Germany, June 13 (Delayed) (AP)—Gen. Jacob I. Devers said today that although the Germans had enormous quantities of a new type of poison gas known as "green ring III," there was no evidence to show they ever intended to use gas as an offensive weapon.

Devers, who commanded the Sixth Army Group on the Western front, said that if Hitler ever had seriously contemplated use of gas, he was restrained by the German general staff.

"Even in Africa we carried thousands of tons of anti-gas protective equipment, but I finally stopped the boys from transporting it to Italy and told them to concentrate on H.E. (high explosives) and let the excess baggage go," Devers said. "I told them to get all the H.E. across they could. That's the thing. Poison gas is never decisive, and the German general staff knew it, even if Hitler didn't."

One chemical warfare expert said there were two occasions when the Germans could have used gas with devastating effect. One was on D-Day, when masses of men were concentrated on the Normandy beaches; the other at the Remagen bridgehead across the Rhine, when five full American infantry divisions were crammed into a single small area.

"This was the Germans' last juicy target," the expert said. "After we fanned out across the Rhine they never had another chance."

The earliest form of bread was prepared from acorns and beech-nuts.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, June 14 (AP)—The BLU finally has come to the changing of names to the American Broadcasting Co. Effective Friday, all references to the BLU, a title that has identified the chain since its formation in January, 1927, will be dropped.

Simultaneously, this column will list the network's programs as those of ABC. However, the network, in instances where a short form is used, will refer to itself as "American," because it does not have exclusive radio use to the initials, the method followed by the other chains.

GREENBERG MAY JOIN DETROIT; PHILLIES WIN

By JACK HAND
(AP Sports Writer)

If Capt. Hank Greenberg is headed toward the Detroit outfield and Rudy York is going to start hitting, it's time to rate Steve O'Neill's Tigers the team to beat in the American league.

Some already tab the Bengals as the class of the junior circuit but most fans have been reluctant to go all out for a club that leans so heavily on its slim pitching staff for success.

Although the Tigers lead the second-place New York Yankees by a full game today, and have won seven of their last eight, their overall record has been spotty.

The case of Greenberg is not clear although an army spokesman at Fort Dix, N. J., said yesterday the former Tiger may be out of service by tomorrow night. Neither he nor the Detroit club have indicated an early return to the lineup.

Greenberg, 34, has been in the army since May 7, 1941, with the exception of an eight-week period in late 1941 and early 1942 when he was discharged as average but later re-inducted. In his last full season with the Bengals he hit .340 and bashed 41 homers. His return would be the first test of a "big name" major leaguer attempting to pick up where he left off in his baseball career.

York Hits Stride

York showed encouraging signs of ending his season-long slump yesterday with three hits for a perfect day against St. Louis, contributing a three-run homer, two singles and four runs-batted-in to the leaders' 6-4 victory. It was only his third round tripper of the season and his average still was a trifling .259.

Starter Joe Orrell was the victor over Nelson Potter, but neither was around at the finish.

Chicago made seven hits count for a 5-3 decision over Cleveland, although the Tribe backed up Steve Gromek with a 10-blow attack on Joe Haynes and two successors. Gromek's five-game win streak was snapped on a four-run fourth inning sport. The Yankees and Washington were not scheduled and a Boston at Philadelphia night game was washed out.

Giants Lose Again

Brooklyn took another fall out of the New York Giants, 3-2, pulling into a second place tie with Pittsburgh, only a half game off the pace. Hal Gregg did a five-hit job on the leaders to outpoint Harry Feldman. Pittsburgh and Chicago were idle yesterday but the Pirates can take over first place by winning two from Chicago today. A Bucco split and a Dodger triumph would put Leo Durocher's crew on top.

Two streaks ended as the Phillies went 15 innings to a 5-4 decision that snapped their record-breaking losing streak at 16 and the Boston Braves' victory string at nine. Mort Cooper had copped his sixth in a row in the opener of the double-header with an 8-3 triumph for the Hub.

Veteran Joe Bowman continued to pitch like a champ for Cincinnati after his discard by the Boston Red Sox, notching his third successive decision for the Reds by a 2-1 margin over the St. Louis Cards who hoisted their world series pennant.

Binghamton Wins After 3 Setbacks

(By The Associated Press)

Now that they are away from Scranton, the Binghamton Triplets of the Eastern league feel that they might yet be able to get down to the business of playing winning baseball.

The Triplets clubbed Wilkes-Barre's Joe Karkul for nine hits last night to down the Barons 3-1. The game was the first of a three-day series at Wilkes-Barre and marked a complete reversal of form for the Triplets who had just weathered a three-game series at Scranton without winning a game. So far, the Triplets have dropped six out of seven to Scranton.

Elmira downed Albany 3-1 to strengthen its hold on the league leadership and a 9-5 Williamsport defeat at the hands of Hartford moved the idle Utica Blue Sox into second place.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

New York, June 14 (AP)—You can always blame the umpire when you lose a ball game, but did you ever hear of the ump winning one?

It happened not long ago in Brigham City, Utah. The Brigham City Peaches were playing Camp Kearns and Hank Hansmann, 37-year-old Peaches' pitcher, was the plate umpire. . . . When his team was trailing 4-1 after five innings, Hank decided something ought to be done, so he took over the mound from Marv Abrams and curve-balled the soldiers into submission. . . . That, plus some weird fielding by the Eagles gave Brigham City the game so the umpire was listed as winning pitcher.

NEWSPRINT SHORTAGE

When Pittsburgh's sports writers, who will play the sportscasters in a war bond baseball game at Forbes field, July 8, discovered that the radio men had signed up Art "Prez" Rooney, the town's leading football and fight man, Chairman John L. Hernon decided it was high time to do a little recruiting, too. . . . Shortly afterward the writers' roster listed Paul Waner, correspondent to the "Sarasota, Fla., Times," Jimmy Ripple, special correspondent to the Tri-State News Bureau from Export, Pa., Moose Solters, correspondent without portfolio from Mars, Pa., and Pie Traynor, correspondent at large.

GRUNT AND MANY GROANS

Speaking of recruiting, this yarn comes from a source that must remain anonymous. . . . Seems a southern college was entertaining a big kid who was regarded as about the best football prospect in the state. . . . Someone learned that the boy had ambitions to become a wrestler so they arranged a "tryout" against the college champ. . . . The gym was packed—in more ways than one—and as soon as the prospect was by a quick fall, the fans hoisted him to their shoulders and marched him around, telling him what a great guy he was. . . . It made quite an impression—but so did the fact that both the army and navy are after the same boy.

Philadelphia, June 14 (AP)—In addition to birdies, today's Philadelphia Inquirer golf tournament will feature: Bing Crosby crooning several songs on the first tee, prior to playing an 18-hole exhibition match.

Pittsburgh, June 14 (AP)—The nine-bolt winning streak of Arbie Bowie 133 Alliquippa Pa., blew up when Doll Rafferty, 136, Milwaukee, punched out a unanimous decision in a one-sided 10-round fight last night at Hickey Park's first boxing show of the season.

Bowie was down twice, for a no count in the second round, and for eight in the sixth. The Alliquippa youth fought gamely but was plain-

Heath Joins Tribe; Seeks Hitting Crown

Chicago, June 14 (AP) — John Geoffrey (Jeff) Heath is back with the Cleveland Indians hoping to make up for two months lost in a holdout campaign by lifting the American league batting crown from the brow of his boss, manager Lou Boudreau.

And the big powerful Canadian may do just that, too, if he pounds the ball at the same clip he did last year. In 1944 he outlaid Boudreau by no match for the veteran Raftery.

by four points—331 to the 327 the Indian manager batted in winning the title, but he played in only 60 games, not enough for recognition as batting king.

"I've been working out every day at Seattle with coast league teams and with sandlot teams. All I need to get started now are a few games against major league pitching," the husky outfielder said.

The new 10,000 ton Victory ships will carry the names of 60 or more U. S. colleges and universities.

Truman Wants To Take Senate's Approval Of 'Frisco Charter To Big 3 Meeting

GEORGE DOUBTS RATIFICATION CAN BE RAPID

By EARNEST B. VACCARO
Washington, June 14 (AP)—President Truman wants to take with him to an early Big Three meeting the senate's signed and sealed approval of the San Francisco conference.

This presidential hope was revealed today by Senator George (D-Ga.), who said it "undoubtedly" was the primary factor in Mr. Truman's request for speedy ratification of the projected peace-keeping charter.

George, ranking member of the foreign relations committee, added, however, that he isn't too optimistic that approval can be optimistic by the administration's July 15 goal.

Big Three To Meet Early
Date of the goal was disclosed by Senate authorities yesterday, a strong hint that the promised Big Three conference would be held shortly thereafter.

Mr. Truman earlier in the day said he had a definite date to meet with Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin but that word of the time and place would have to await his arrival. The White House remained silent on a British broadcast reporting an unconfirmed report from Copenhagen that the Danish capital would be the locale.

Byrnes For Cabinet?

Meanwhile, the chief executive's disclosure that James F. Byrnes will accompany him to the meeting revived speculation over the possibility of the former war mobilizer's ultimate appointment as secretary of state.

This speculation is founded both upon Mr. Truman's longstanding friendship for the South Carolinian and upon the belief that he had another important diplomatic assignment in mind for the present secretary, Edward R. Stettinius, Jr. This could be either as an ambassador or as a key figure in the projected United Nations organization.

1,200 Idle In Work Stoppage At Mill

Williamsport, Pa., June 14 (AP)—A work stoppage at Bethlehem Steel company's wire rope mill continued for the fourth day with the 1,200 idle men deciding against returning to their jobs.

K. L. Farwell, president of Local 2496, United Steel Workers of America, (CIO), announced the decision of the workers not to go back to their jobs following a mass meeting last night.

Representatives of the army, navy and the War Production Board addressed the workers, asking them to end the work stoppage.

The meeting was called by Farwell in what the union termed an effort to find basis for resumption of negotiations in a dispute with Bethlehem over pay for the seventh day's work.

Navy's Most-Traveled Shore Patrolman Has Never Seen The Ocean

Washington, June 14 (AP)—Seaman Specialist Howard R. Whitescarver has traveled 400,000 miles, and has yet to see an ocean.

He's done all that traveling as a shore patrolman, most of the time as chaperon for sailors riding on trains.

That makes him the navy's most traveled shore patrolman. And he did it all after joining the navy in November, 1942.

But he hasn't yet seen the world, or been aboard a ship.
"In fact," the Detroit landlubber blushing told a reporter today, "I haven't yet even seen the ocean. The closest I have come to that is looking at the harbor in New York."

Sgt. Albert Rose of Blue Hill, Neb., the army's most traveled military policeman—with 341,000 miles to his credit—has yet to make his first arrest of a soldier for violence.

Both agreed that some of the servicemen on the trains want to "blow off a little steam," but "you just talk them out of going too far."

SMALL NATIONS DEMAND RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
(AP Diplomatic News Editor)

San Francisco, June 14 (AP)—The struggle of small nations to protect themselves against the big power control of a world league finally boiled down today to one demand—the right to withdraw from the organization whenever they wish.

Indications are that this demand will be granted, although with some strings attached. The big powers, having triumphed on the veto issue, are agreeable provided they now get two other things they want:

A restriction that the charter being drawn up at the United Nations Conference cannot be amended except on complete agreement of the United States, Britain, Russia, France and China.

A punishment clause under which nations judged guilty of grave violations of the charter would be expelled from the organization.

These are the main, closely related problems for the closing days of the Conference. Prolonged discussion of them appears to be one of the chief reasons why the Conference leadership has once more delayed the adjournment goal, this time from June 20 to June 23.

To make this time schedule the Big-Five agreed yesterday that the week-end ahead should be a "working week-end" with Sunday meetings as necessary, possibly including even a full-dress session of the Conference.

Alger Hiss of the United States, Conference secretary general, reported that final texts of the charter in five languages—Russian, Spanish, Chinese, French, and English—are being kept up to date as committees finish their work. Copies in these languages must be ready for signing at the final session at which President Truman will speak.

It appears possible that the signing may not be completed, however, until many weeks later in Washington, since none of the delegations will want to sign a foreign language text until its own language expert has satisfied himself about its accuracy.

DISCOVER NINE VARIETIES OF LOCUST IN PA.

Harrisburg, June 14 (AP)—Nine varieties of 17-year locusts make periodic appearances in Pennsylvania.

This information was dug out today by Dr. A. B. Champlain, principal entomologist of the agriculture department's bureau of plant industry, in answer to many letters expressing doubt that the insects were scheduled to appear this year. "It is easy for old timers," he explained, "to confuse the years of appearance, especially where more than one brood exists in a given area."

Searching through records made over a period of many years, Dr. Champlain found at least 39 different broods of the periodical cicada (17-year locust) exist in the United States. Nine of these broods appear in this state with brood II the one scheduled for 1945.

One Brood This Year
When the insects do appear, he said, they come "in compact masses which attract attention through the noise and the damage inflicted on tree twigs by females cutting slits in the bark of twigs in which to lay eggs."

Early arrivals of brood II have already been noted in Dauphin County and are due in 16 other counties within the next few weeks. Brood I appeared in a few southern counties last year.

The other seven broods known in Pennsylvania and the years they can be expected are:

Brood V—Fayette, Greene and Washington Counties, 1948. Brood VI—Bucks, Montgomery and Westmoreland Counties, 1949. Brood VII—Allegheny and Washington Counties, 1950. Brood VIII—Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Crawford, Fayette, Mercer, Venango, Washington, and Westmoreland Counties, 1951.

Seek Decision On Wickard Approval

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The Senate Agriculture committee met today for a decision on the hotly-contested nomination of Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard to be Rural Electrification administrator. Chairman Thomas (D-Okla.), predicting approval of Wickard by "about a two-to-one vote" despite a flood of testimony against him, disclosed that objections have been filed against President Truman's choice for a new undersecretary of Agriculture.

Thomas said Tom Linder, Georgia Commissioner of Agriculture, has filed a protest against John B. Hutson to be the new undersecretary succeeding Grover B. Hill of Texas.

Hill has been serving under Wickard. Both step down June 30 when Rep. Clinton Anderson (D-N. M.), succeeds Wickard. Hutson, now with the Office of War Mobilization and former head of the Commodity Credit Corporation and production director of the War Food Administration, was selected by the President to serve as undersecretary to Anderson.

Brood XIII—Lancaster County, 1956.
Brood XIV—Adams, Bedford, Berks, Blair, Clearfield, Clinton, Cumberland, Franklin, Lehigh, Luzerne, Montour, Northumberland, Potter, Snyder, Schuylkill, Tioga, Union and York Counties, 1957.

This year's brood is due in Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Delaware, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Philadelphia, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill and Wyoming in addition to Dauphin.

POLL TAX VOTE ONLY MOCKERY FOR CONGRESS

Washington, June 14—Congress is going through the annual mockery of considering a law to eliminate the poll tax in seven southern states.

It won't pass such a law. You're just looking at window dressing. Frick stuff. The House yesterday passed a bill to eliminate the poll tax in Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

The House can put on the act because it doesn't mean anything. The anti-poll tax will die in the Senate. It's an old story.

One Escape Route

Because House debate is limited, House southerners who would like to talk on the poll tax endlessly find their tongues tied. Not so in the Senate. A senator can talk till he drops dead.

He can't be limited in talking except by a rule called cloture. Cloture means a time-limit on debate. Before that can be invoked, two-thirds of the Senate must vote for cloture. That they won't do.

It's one of the prime escape routes of the Senate from too much responsibility. If a senator voted for cloture today against another senator, he'd get cloture imposed on him tomorrow. They play it safe.

Only One Step

There's only one real reason behind the drive to eliminate the poll tax. That is: to get more negroes to vote in southern states where now they have practically no voice. But elimination of the poll tax is not all that's necessary to get a vote for the negro.

If negroes qualified for voting by paying or not having to pay the poll tax, they'd still have to pass a literacy test. This test is administered by white men. So, few would pass.

So—just to keep the record straight—elimination of the poll tax would be only one more step along the long road to get southern white men to let southern negroes vote.

Constitutional Joker

Anyone who has lived in the south any length of time knows—if he pretends to be sensible at all—that the north cannot legislate social equality between whites and negroes in the south. It's a long painful process.

Yet, there's a joke in the southern obstinacy against the negro. Under the constitution, a Congressman's district should be eliminated if he

Big 3 To Meet; Give No Details

Washington, June 14 (AP)—President Truman announced Wednesday that a big three meeting has been set, but he said he could not announce the time or place until his arrival there.

The President also told a news conference that he expected the meeting at Moscow this Friday to work out a unified Polish government on a broad base to produce results.

In obvious good humor following an earlier conference with Harry Hopkins and Joseph E. Davies, his representatives to Moscow and London, the President told the reporters the results they had obtained have been completely satisfactory and gratifying.

He said he would take Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., James F. Byrnes, former war mobilizer, Hopkins and Davies to the big three meeting with him, the latter two if their health permits.

Showdown Today On Commerce Policies

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The Senate reached a showdown today on the nation's postwar world commerce policy.

After two days of debate, Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the finance committee called on the chamber to decide whether the administration shall have authority to cut tariffs another 50 per cent in negotiating trade agreements with other countries.

Over George's protests, the finance committee struck this authority from legislation extending the reciprocal trade agreement program until 1948. The vote was 10 to 9, but George forecast it would be reversed on the senate floor.

doesn't truly represent the majority of people in his district.

Southern Congressmen rarely represent more than a handful of people in their districts, and certainly they do not represent negroes.

CHINESE UNITS RETAKE HOYUN FROM JAPANESE

By SPENCER MOOSA
 Chungking, June 14 (AP)—Chinese regulars and local militia have recaptured Hoyun, 105 miles east-northeast of Canton, an important town in the Japanese strategy to protect the China coast against American invasion, the Chinese high command said Wednesday.

However it was officially announced that the Japanese had regained Ishan, western bastion of the former American air base city Luchow, in bitter fighting in a theatre almost 400 miles to the northwest.

Hoyun was recaptured on June 9 and the Chinese advanced 19 miles to the north. It was originally taken by the Japanese as part of a plan to protect the approaches to Canton and Hongkong to enable the enemy to move troops quickly to the coast east of Hongkong in the event of an American invasion.

The Chinese said severe fighting was raging outside the city formerly the main Japanese bulwark guarding the western approaches to the former American air base city of Luchow.

Chinese withdrawal from the city was first reported by headquarters of Maj. Gen. Robert B. McClure's Chinese combat command, an American liaison unit.

The Chinese had announced only a few days ago they had occupied the city.

In Kiangsi province strong Chinese units on June 9 penetrated Japanese lines between Nakang and Sinfeng, cutting the escape route to the north, particularly for those Japanese holding the former American air base of Kanhsien, which was abandoned January 30.

The Chinese also counter-attacked the Japanese at Sinfeng, 185 miles northeast of Canton, and forced them to retreat southward, with the Chinese in hot pursuit.

CRITICISM OF REDS DEPLORED

Washington, June 14 (AP)—With the war over in Europe, suspicion of Russia and anti-Russian feeling have become vocal in this country.

It has sprung up in certain newspapers, over the radio, in Congress and in Congressional committee hearings.

This has increased so much—with Russians still in San Francisco trying to work out a peace league—that Archibald MacLeish, assistant Secretary of State, took to the air to say:

"There is no necessary reason in the logic of national objectives why the Soviet Union and this country should ever find themselves in conflict with each other, 'let alone in the kind of conflict reckless and irresponsible men have now begun to suggest.'"

Suspicion and criticism of Russia have become so pronounced on the floor of Congress that Rep. Patman, Texas Democrat, arose to say:

"I deplore the statements that are made on the floor of this House and elsewhere about Russia. The statements that are calculated to cause trouble or disunity between these two great countries."

Only two naval officers have ever held seats in the U. S. Senate: Commo. Robert F. Stockton of New Jersey and Adm. Thomas C. Hart of Connecticut.

Ceremony To Mark Retirement Of Bonds

Harrisburg, June 14 (AP)—Pennsylvania's fiscal officers spent over two weeks collecting in a central source the $48,570,000 with which the state will liquidate the indebtedness of the General State Authority, depression-born building agency of the commonwealth.

Retirement of the authority's bonds will take place at a public ceremony Friday in Governor Martin's office.

Frank Hoffman, acting deputy secretary of property and supplies, said 18 state depositories scattered throughout the commonwealth were called on to transmit their moneys to two banks in Philadelphia so the state could draw its checks against one source.

"Details required over two weeks' supervision to collect these funds at the right place," Hoffman said. Liquidation of the debt as well as

REVEAL TOLL OF WAR AT SEA TO UNITED STATES

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The war at sea cost this country 1,554 merchant ships up to V-E Day and 5,579 crewmen dead or missing. The army lost 3,604 soldiers drowned in troop movements against Italy and Germany.

Against these sobering figures, however, Americans were told today that their shipbuilders sent more than seven tons of cargo shipping down the ways for every ton lost to the Axis.

And the army's safety record for its men was described officially as nearly twice as good as that of the first World War.

Lost 6,277,077 Tons
 The Maritime Commission said the 1,554 vessels lost flying the United States flag aggregated 6,277,077 deadweight tons. They fell prey to submarines, enemy mines or planes and wartime navigation hazards from September 1, 1939, to last May 8.

Far outweighing this were deliveries of 5,016 ships totaling 48,674,000 deadweight tons, built in the three years, 1942-43-44.

Commission Chairman Emory S. Land did not minimize the severity of the Axis toll, however, saying the sinkings were accompanied by "heavy loss of life," he added that the casualty toll was raised to 6,066 on May 1 by 487 seamen and officers listed as prisoners of war.

Troop Losses Low
 Simultaneously last night the navy and the British Admiralty released figures showing that a total of 4,770

Allied and neutral merchant ships were lost by direct enemy action. Their weight, expressed in gross tonnage figures that are less impressive than the deadweight basis used by the Maritime Commission, was placed at 21,149,900 tons.

Nearly half of the army's troop losses, also announced last night, resulted from the sinking of two British-operated ships, said Maj. Gen. C. P. Gross, chief of army transportation.

Estimating that the 4,453,061 troops embarked from this country made an additional trip at sea between theaters, Gross said the loss amounted to only four out of every 10,000 as against 7.2 soldiers of every 10,000 in the first World War. In that conflict, 2,908,931 troops were moved to France.

Simultaneously last night the navy and the British Admiralty released figures showing that a total of 4,770

CHAMPION DOG MOTHER HELPS FINANCE WAR

By J. Herbert Altshull
Ambler, Pa., June 14 (AP)—The champion mother of dogdom, Lena, the American-Welsh Foxhound, is giving her children to the war effort. Lena has a great many children to give: 23 puppies in one litter. A year ago, the largest known in canine history, and 10 in another, eighth months. Lena and her brood are credited with raising more than $25,000 for war financing. Now the pups are being offered at auction, going to the highest bidders in war bonds.

Six of them already have gone to boost bond sales, says Lt. Cmdr. W. Newbold Ely, of the coast guard, Lena's owner. One went to the marine corps, to benefit purchases of overseas kits, the others went to cities like Seattle, Los Angeles, St. Louis and Cleveland.

Distinguished Ancestors
All the proceeds are recorded in Lena's ledger of her contributions to the war effort.

She has been helping out a long time. Lena and her brood appeared at the Westminster Dog Show in New York for the National War Fund at the Philadelphia show for the benefit of The Salvation Army and for the Red Cross at Ambler. Lena has a distinguished lineage. Her grandmother, a Foxhound named Gypsy, was purchased from Lord David Davies in Llandinam, Wales, by Commander Ely in 1936, in exchange for a donation to an international police force fund.

Trained To Hunt Men
The sire of Lena's record litter born June 19, 1944, was "a hound of the Penn-Marydel type named Kirkwood Chell. The second set of 10 pups was born prematurely Feb. 13, 1945. The sire was a grandson of Gypsy named Geoffrey. "Although the sire is known, Lena was bred accidentally," her owner said.

Commander Ely, publisher of Judge Magazine, long ago took over the task of breeding specific war dogs, modelling this program on his own system of raising working hounds for use as a pack and individual dogs as well as hunters of big game.

He has sent dogs to the marine corps both in Pennsylvania and the marine dog base at New River, N. C., to be trained for the more difficult job of hunting men, much as Lena and Commander Ely's Foxhounds have been trained to hunt game.

Chapter 25
The calendar said spring had come, but the weather was cold and disagreeable.

Kay, driving home along Lambert Avenue, reflected that she'd never thought she'd see Lowell look like this. The houses, the churches, the school buildings, the mill were blurred against the sky. They looked strange and foreign; as queer as some of the people who had recently moved into the village to replace the number of old-timers who had moved away.

The women wore felt bedroom slippers to work; their mouths were usually filled with snuff, their hair powdery with cotton lint.

Kay looked at the little red brick building that Katherine had had built for the kindergarten and nursery school. It was closed, and paint peeling from the front door and advertisements fluttering from the walls. Dirty newspapers and trash had washed into the yard.

Kay shivered. Was this typical of what Lowell would become? Obviously it was. For even the houses had lost their pride; the yards were unkempt, strewn with broken toys and stray tin cans.

What had Francis gained by reducing the salaries so drastically that his former employees were forced to move away? For the number of new people who took their places were costing the company many thousands of dollars by their incompetence, their shiftlessness.

Ned worried and Francis fumed about the large orders of cloth turned back because of flaws in the material. There was talk of "suing the Lambert Mill for using the mails to defraud" when the prepaid orders reached their destination and were unfit for use.

When Francis had brought his troubles home, Lucia would shrug her lovely shoulders and say, her voice not as sweet and charming as it had been six months ago, "Don't be childish. Why bother me?"

A child's voice hailed her from across the street. "Hi, Miss Kay!" She drove her car against the curb and stopped. "Hello, Tommy." "Hi. Come and play Leonidas with me."

Tommy walked toward Kay with only a slight limp. She saw he had gained weight since he came home from Warm Springs, and his eyes were clear and bright and happy. He carried his beloved rifle over his shoulder and he indicated the shrubbery around his house for Kay to join him.

"Not this time, Tommy. It's too damp. Better run back into the house."

He climbed up on the step of the car and smiled lovingly into Kay's face framed in the window. "Aw," he begged, "come on and be a sport."

She smiled wistfully. "I'd love to. Nothing would please me any more than to be a child again."

"Then be one," he told her. "There comes your mother. Let's see how fast you can walk to her."

"Miss Kay?"

"Yes, Tommy?"

"What are you sad about?" he asked, frowning. "Even when your lips smile your eyes look like you want to cry."

Kay looked away from the child. "Why should I be sad, Tommy?" she asked. "I have so much to make me happy. I see you walking. I am wearing my pretty silver bracelet."

"Well, if you get to feeling bad, me and Dr. Warner will take you to Warm Springs," he promised. "You'll get well there."

His eyes looked adoringly into hers. "You know, I love you better than—"

"Now look out, Tommy," she warned. "Be careful."

He looked down and dug the toe of his shoe into the ground. "Well, I love you next to Dr. Sims and Dr. Warner."

And having cleared his conscience loyally, he turned to his waiting mother.

Kay was surprised when she arrived at home to find Josephine Blake waiting to see her. Kay thought, with regret: She probably wants to help to get a job in the mill now that she isn't going to college. But why doesn't she go to Francis? Or to Ned?

Kay smiled warmly at her. "Hello, Josephine," she greeted. "How are you?"

The younger girl tried to return Kay's smile, but she failed miserably. She looked pale and ill and desperately unhappy. "I—I'm not well, Kay," she stammered. "I'm sorry, Josephine," Kay said kindly. "You do look pale. Have you been to see Dr. Weston?"

The girl was silent. She looked away from Kay and her glance fastened on her hands in her lap. She murmured, low, "I don't need to go to Dr. Weston. I know what's wrong with me."

Kay had a premonition of disaster as she looked at the girl's desperate eyes and her trembling hands. "What is it Josephine? What's wrong?" she asked sharply.

The girl looked up. "I—I'm going to have a baby, Kay."

Kay stared at her, aghast. "Josephine! You can't mean that."

Shame dyed the girl's face a painful crimson. "Yes, I am. And I'm so scared I don't know what to do. If Mr. Francis hears of it he'll fire Daddy and make us move away from Lowell."

"Josephine," Kay denied. "Not you, anyone but you."

"Yes," Josephine said bitterly. "I'm used to the idea now and I'm also used to what Mr. Francis can do."

Reds Charge Reich Ordered Argentina To War Against Axis

Moscow, June 14 (AP)—An article in the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia charged that Argentina's declaration of war on the Axis March 27 was made on instructions from Germany.

The writer, Jacob Ilynsky, referred to the recent apprehension of Fritz Mandl, Austrian armament manufacturer in Argentina, and said:

"The 'arrest' of Nazi 'merchant of death' in Argentina as well as the entire farce of reequipping the government of (President Gen. Edelmiro) Farrell and (Vice President Col. Juan) Peron in anti-Nazi clothes was played to the tune of music from Germany whose leaders, the world press observed, gave instructions to the Military Fascist clique of Argentina as to the necessity of declaring war formally on the Axis powers."
